

Wermers wins family housing award

The San Diego Housing Federation awarded Wermers Multi-Family Corp. with the 2008 Housing Project of the year award for Outstanding Achievement in Affordable Housing and Community Development for Auburn Park, a 69-unit, four-building apartment complex in City Heights.

The designer was Studio E Architects. The developer was Affirmed Housing Group.

The Wermers team included Vice President Richard Wood, Ken Maskevich as project manager, Chip Page as superintendent and Jamie Hartman as site coordinator.

Earlier this year, Auburn Park received the 2008 Gold Nugget "Award of Merit" in the Affordable Housing Category at the Pacific Coast Builders Conference.
