

Columbia Aluminum Products, LLC

To Whom It May Concern:

Over the past few years Columbia Aluminum Products, LLC has established a mutually beneficial relationship with C-Me Trim, Inc. This relationship has been fueled by the understanding and knowledge of the business by C-Me Trim, Inc. in many aspects. Their communication and knowledge of both our products as well as its installation procedures has made us proud to be their top vendor for weather-stripping products and thresholds. C-Me Trim, Inc. utilizes the spec sheets we provide them to ensure that the products we produce for them fit and perform to the highest standard. This level of dedication and detail has enabled C-Me Trim, Inc. to perform jobs of detailed specifications to the highest level, as well as large jobs that require precision at high volume.

C-Me Trim, Inc. has proven to us that they intend to use the best material for the job based on the requirements provided by the builder. They know our products and don't hesitate to ask questions knowing that the manufacturer will not advise to use an inferior product, but rather the right product for the specific application. C-Me Trim, Inc. has demonstrated that they are capable of handling large jobs as well as small custom jobs. This level of versatility has made them one of the best trim companies that Columbia Aluminum Products, LLC deals with. The experience and knowledge that their employees possess about the business undoubtedly sets them apart from other trim companies. Whether it be their installations, accounting, or overall management; C-Me Trim, Inc. has established an excellent reputation with Columbia Aluminum Products, LLC and we look forward to a continuing mutually beneficial relationship together.

Sincerely,

Evan McGinnis
